

He Gave His Life That We Might Live

(A Christmas Play)

By
Eloise Haycox

Caste of Characters

Chris Walker – Resident Doctor at big city hospital (52 speaking parts – 136 lines)
Mr. Carl Walker – Chris’ Father, a retired school teacher (17 speaking parts – 50 lines)
Ken Foster – Chris’ best friend (9 speaking parts – 18 lines)
Bill Tremble – Manager of a motel and an omelet shop (5 speaking parts – 25 lines)
Kyla McKay – Waitress (19 speaking parts – 56 lines)
Melanie Osborne – Levi’s mother, Youth minister’s wife (16 speaking parts – 34 lines)
Levi Osborne – 7-year-old boy, thoughtful and sick a lot (32 speaking parts – 49 lines)
Brian Tolbert – Dawnetta’s father, rough, loud & mean, dressed sloppily (18 speaking parts – 31 lines)
Donna Tolbert – Dawnetta’s mother, sweet & kind, in spite of her husband’s meanness (14 speaking parts – 20 lines)
Dawnetta Tolbert – 7-year-old girl, sweet and enthusiastic (14 speaking parts – 22 lines)
Minister (3 speaking parts – 20 lines)
Doctor (5 speaking parts – 19 lines)
Nurse 1 (2 speaking parts – 5 lines)
Nurse 2 (2 speaking parts – 4 lines)
Policeman (3 speaking parts – 5 lines)

↑Copyright 2006

All rights reserved

Contact information:

Eloise Haycox, 11013 Country Pines Rd., Shoals, IN 47581

Email: ehaycox@countrypinesprinting.com

User License: The purchaser of this downloadable copy of this Christmas Play may print as many copies as they need for use in the production of this play. The purchaser may not share this play (pdf file, or printed copies) with any other producer or organization with the intent of performing without purchasing their own copy.